

Diversity and Equal Opportunities

Racism in Higher Education

Invitation to the information and discussion event on the topic of „Racism in higher education – a critical reflection”

What invisible barriers shape daily academic life, and how is racism present within it? How can we, as part of our faculty and institution, contribute to reducing racism, and the racial stress it produces? Learn what racial stress is, how it is institutionalized and what the effects of everyday racism can be.

Monday, March 23, 2026

4.30 to 6 p.m., followed by an Apéro

Location

VonRoll, Fabrikstrasse 8, 3012 Bern
Room C102

Registration

Voluntary registration at: Link or directly to florence.epiney@unibe.ch.

Event in person or via Zoom: <https://unibe-ch.zoom.us/j/61055185375>

Input

- MSc. Lalitha Chamakalayil (FHNW; diversity representative of FHNW)

Dialog with

- Lalitha Chamakalayil (FHNW)
- India James-Licher (representant of the student association Students of Color of the African Diaspora SCAD)
- Moderation: Gina Vega (Office for Equal Opportunities: Antiracism at the University of Bern)

Followed by an open discussion with the audience.

This event is part of the action week against racism at the University of Bern.